LAWS OF THE UNITED STATES

Passed at the Second Session of the Thirty-seventh Congress.

[PUBLIC RESOLUTION—No. 34.]

Joint Resolution relative to a certain grant of lands for railroad purposes, made to the State of Michigan in eighteen hundred and fifty-six.

Resolved by the Senate and House of Representatives of the United States of America in Congress assembled, That the words "Wisconsin State line," in the first section of an act entitled "An act making a grant of lands to the State of Michigan in alternate sections, to aid in the construction of railroads in said State," approved June third, eighteen hundred and fifty-six, shall, without forfeiture to said State or its assigns of any rights or benefits under said act, or exemption from any of the conditions or obligations imposed thereby, be construed to authorize the location of the line of railroad, provided for in said act from Marquette, Lake Superior, to the Wisconsin State line, upon any eligible route from the township of Marquette aforesaid, to a point on the Wisconsin State line near the mouth of the Menomonee river, and touching at favorable points on Green Bay, with a view of securing a railroad available for military purposes from Green Bay to the waters of Lake Superior. And the line of railroad as now located in pursuance of said act from Marquette to the Wisconsin State line according to the records of the General Land Office, is hereby authorized to be changed so as to conform to the route above indicated, which line, when surveyed and the maps and plans thereof filed in the proper office, as required under said act of June third, eighteen hundred and fifty six, shall confer the same rights upon and benefits to the State of Michigan and its assigns to said new line as though the same had been originally located under said act.

SEC. 2. And be it further resolved, That the provisions of an act of Congress approved August fourth, eighteen hundred and fifty two, entitled "An act to grant the right of way to all rail and plank roads and macadamized turnpikes passing through the public lands belonging to the United States," be and the same are hereby extended so as to be applicable to the new line of railroad so as above to be located. Provided, The same shall be commenced within two years from the fourth day of August, eighteen hundred and sixty two, and shall be completed within five years thereafter.

SEC. 3. And be it further resolved, That the Secretary of the Interior be and he is hereby authorized to cause all even sections or parts of even sections of public lands that may be brought within six miles of the new line of railroad, as herein provided for, to be sold at the same price and in the same manner those have or might have been, according to the said act of June third, eighteen hundred and fifty six, upon the originally located route of railroad. And all purchasers, or their heirs or assigns, within the six mile limits of said originally located route, who shall be more than six miles from the new line of route hereby authorized, and who have paid the sum of two dollars and fifty cents an acre, shall have the right either to exchange their locations upon the line as first established to the new line upon the same terms, in like quantities, and in the same manner, as on the land first established, as aforesaid, or at their option to enter, without further payment, any where within the Marquette land district, in the State of Michigan, or that of the Grand Traverse land district, in said State, lying north or west of Lake Michigan, an additional quantity of public lands subject to private entry, at one dollar and twenty five cents an acre, equal to the quantity entered by them at two dollars and fifty cents per acre, so that the lands originally entered by them shall be thus reduced to the rate of one dollar and twenty-five cents an acre.

SEC. 4. And be it further resolved, That the even sections of public lands reserved to the United States by the aforesaid act of June third, eighteen hundred and fifty-six, along the originally located route of the Marquette and Wisconsin State Line Railroad Company, except where such sections shall fall within six miles of the new line of road so as aforesaid proposed to be located, and along which no railroad has been constructed, shall hereafter be subject to sale at one dollar and twenty five cents per acre.

SEC. 5. And be it further resolved, That upon the filing in the General Land Office of the lists of said railroad lands, in whole or in part as now selected and certified in the General Land Office, with the certificate of the Governor of the State of Michigan, under the seal of the State, that said State and its assigns surrender all claim to the lands, as aforesaid, set forth and described in the lists thereof thus certified, and that the same have never been pledged or sold or in anywise incumbered, then the State of Michigan or its assigns shall be entitled to receive a like quantity of land, selected in like manner, upon the new line of road as thus surrendered upon the first line, and to the extent of six sections per mile in the aggregate for every mile of the new line, according to the general provisions of the act of June third, eighteen hundred and fifty six. And it shall be the duty of the Commissioner of the General Land Office to offer for public sale, in the usual manner, the lands embraced in the lists of surrendered lands aforesaid, when duly filed in his office, as herein directed. [Approved, July 5, 1862.]

[PUBLIC RESOLUTION—No. 36.]

A Resolution tendering the thanks of Congress to Captain Louis M. Goldsborough, and officers, petty officers, seamen, and marines under his command, for the victory at Roanoke Island.

Resolved by the Senate and House of Representatives of the United States of America in Congress assembled, That the thanks of Congress be and they are hereby tendered to Captain Louis M. Goldsborough, and through him to the officers, petty officers, seamen and marines attached to the squadron under his command, for the brilliant and decisive victory achieved at Roanoke Island, on the seventh, eighth, and tenth days of February last.

Approved, July 11, 1862.

[PUBLIC RESOLUTION—No. 37.]

A Resolution expressive of the thanks of Congress to Lieutenant J. L. Worden, of the U. S. Navy, and to the officers and men under his command in the Monitor.

Resolved by the Senate and House of Representatives of the United States of America in Congress assembled, That the thanks of Congress and of the American people are due and are hereby tendered to Lieutenant J. L. Worden, of the United States navy, and to the officers and men of the iron-clad gunboat Monitor, under his command, for the skill and gallantry exhibited by them in the late remarkable battle between the Monitor and the rebel iron-clad steamer Merrimac.

SEC. 2. Be it further resolved, That the President of the United States be requested to cause this resolution to be communicated to Lieutenant Worden, and through him to the officers and men under his command. [Approved, July 11, 1862.]

[PUBLIC RESOLUTION—No. 43.]

A Resolution to provide for the presentation of "medals of honor" to the enlisted men of the army and volunteer forces who have distinguished or may distinguish themselves in battle during the present rebellion.

Resolved by the Senate and House of Representatives of the United States of America in Congress assembled, That the President of the United States be and he is hereby authorized to cause two thousand "medals of honor" to be prepared with suitable emblematic devices, and to direct that the same be presented, in the name of Congress, to such non-commissioned officers and privates as shall most distinguish themselves by their gallantry in action, and other soldier-like qualities, during the present insurrection. And that the sum of ten thousand dollars be and the same is hereby appropriated, out of any money in the Treasury not otherwise appropriated, for the purpose of carrying this resolution into effect.

Approved, July 12, 1862.

[PUBLIC RESOLUTION—No. 44.]

A Resolution in relation to contracts with the United States.

Resolved by the Senate and House of Representatives of the United States of America in Congress assembled, That it shall be the duty of the several executive departments of the Government to publish in one of the daily newspapers of the city of Washington, on Tuesday of each week a list of all contracts which shall have been solicited or proposed to each respectively, during the week next preceding, which list shall state briefly the subject-matter of each contract so solicited or proposed to be made, its terms, the name of the proposed contractor and of all persons known to be interested therein, directly or indirectly, and of all persons who solicit, request, or recommend the making of any such contract: Provided, That the foregoing provision shall not be applicable to bids made in pursuance of advertisements for contracts or purchases made under existing laws, but shall apply to all proposed modifications of existing contracts.

Approved, July 12, 1862.

FITCH AND DAVIS.—The brutal retaliatory order of the Jeff Davis Government in regard to General Fitch's command, published in our issue lately, reminds us of a dialogue which took place at Washington about two years ago between Davis and Fitch. Fitch was then United States Senator from Indiana. He was an unrelenting anti-Douglas Democrat, not so much probably from principle as on account of a long standing personal feud between him and the eminent Senator from Illinois. Davis and Fitch were ranked as leaders in the war waged upon Douglas at the period of the Lecompton controversy. The latter was even more bitter in his assaults upon the anti-Lecompton chieftain than the former. Some two years or more ago, Davis and Fitch were members of the same Standing Committee of the Senate. One day, at the close of a session of the Committee, a discussion happened to arise between them as to the course the South would probably pursue in the event of Lincoln's election. Davis declared that the Cotton States would withdraw from the Union, establish an independent Government, and if need be, take up arms in its defense. Fitch doubted the fact, but assured the arrogant Mississippian that, if the South attempted anything of the sort, the North would meet force with force. The discussion waxed warmer and warmer. Said Davis, "Do you mean to say, that if we of the Cotton States set up a Government of our own, you of the North will come down and try to subjugate us to Federal authority?" "I do!" responded Fitch, with emphasis.—"What!" replied Davis, rising from his seat, "do you say that you would invade our soil and endeavor by force to compel sovereign States to return to the Union—that you of the North would try to conquer us?" "I mean," replied Fitch, rising and speaking slowly and firmly, "that if the States on the lower Mississippi attempt to set up an independent Government, we of the Northwest, who hold the sources of that river, will invade your territory with forces sufficient to subdue you, State by State, county by county, till you submit to Federal authority!" A little more than two years have passed since this dialogue transpired. Fitch commands a brigade of Union troops in Arkansas. He recently executed a rebel for murder. Thereupon Davis directs his Adjutant General to issue an order proclaiming Fitch and his command outlaws, who, if captured, are not to be treated as prisoners of war. The order is aimed personally at Fitch, directing that if he be taken, he shall be confined as a felon and dealt with accordingly. We are of the opinion that if the troops of Graham N. Fitch meet in equal force those of Jefferson Davis, they will give the latter ample cause to remember the encounter.—N. Y. Tribune.

FRIDAY MORNING, OCTOBER 3, 1862.

Editorial Correspondence.

SALEM, Wednesday, Oct. 1st, 1862.

OREGON STATE FAIR—SECOND DAY.

Early this morning, parties who had previously entered stock and articles for exhibition, gathered upon the grounds and opened out their various wares, or brought their stock from the stalls, but in continuance of the rain, the principal portion of the stock was returned to the stalls and the people gathered under sheds or crowded into the main pavilion, where a large amount of the various articles on exhibition were to be seen tastefully arranged and appropriately located. The rain having ceased, (only at intervals,) about noon, Simeon Francis, President, delivered the opening address and declared the Second Annual Fair of the Oregon State Agricultural Society duly opened. The address was attentively listened to by a very large concourse of people, and we unhesitatingly pronounce it excellent, short and to the point. We have heard it suggested by many that they would be glad to see it in print, and hope that the address will be published with the awards.

The remaining portion of the day was principally spent in examining the many curiosities and wonderful productions to be seen in the pavilion, and in witnessing the trial of speed between numerous scrub races gotten up for the purpose of beating down the track and one or two pacing and trotting matches for the prize offered in the catalogue. The pacing race was decidedly the most important and interesting of this day's performances upon the track, resulting in the winning of the prize by the horse named "Pike"—entered by Mr. J. F. Quinn of Portland against the horse "Selim"—entered by Mr. Leonard, also of Portland. Very good time. We are still unable to give in detail the various kinds of stock and articles entered upon the books of the Society thus far, owing to the fact that a large number of entries were made during this day. We presume that most all the entries have been made that will probably come in during the Fair, though the time for making the same has been continued until 9 o'clock to-morrow.

A large number of people visited the grounds during the day, and among the most attractive sights to be seen was a brass band from Yamhill county, composed of the children of F. Holdridge, four in number, three boys and one girl, and led by their father, who played a number of familiar tunes in an excellent manner. We also noticed the presence of Denison's Cornet Band from Portland, upon the grounds in the evening, who performed in their usual excellent style, fully sustaining their well known reputation as musicians.

Both branches of the Legislative Assembly adjourned during the day, to participate in the exercises upon the Fair Grounds, and we are pleased to say that every member appeared to take proper interest in the occasion. We also noticed quite a large delegation from Multnomah county, who gave unmistakable proofs of a desire to patronize and assist in the main objects sought to be attained. We learn that the receipts of yesterday (first day) amounted to nearly fifteen hundred dollars. The receipts of to-day will not fall much short of those of yesterday.

FIRE.—A dwelling house, valued at $1,000, together with a considerable amount of household furniture was burned to ashes on Tuesday night last, in Salem. The house was the property of Mr. Jordon, who is now in the upper Columbia mines, and was occupied by Mrs. O'Donnel. The "Hooks" made a splendid run to the scene of conflagration and succeeded in getting the first water on the—house adjoining. We noticed that "Willamette No. 1" and Multnomah No. 2," of Portland, were represented "on the ropes." O'Donnel, the husband of the lady occupying the house, has been arrested on suspicion of having set fire to the premises. He has for some time past been threatening acts of violence against his wife, on account of some difficulties that had arisen between them.

AMUSEMENTS.—The citizens of Salem and visitors to the Fair Grounds have had a fair opportunity of agreeably spending the evenings in witnessing the amusing performances of "Denison's Opera Troupe," from Portland, who are holding forth to crowded houses each night since Monday last. This troupe appear to be duly appreciated, as they deserve to be, by strangers as well as by the citizens of their own town.

"Martin, the Wizard," is also here, and, as in Portland, draws nightly crowded houses. His tricks are truly wonderful.

INDIAN OUTRAGE.—A party of twelve persons, who left Auburn in July last for the States, when beyond Fort Hall, were attacked by Indians, and five of their number shot. Two of them died from their injuries; the balance succeeded in making their way back, some of them being now at the town of Auburn.—Mountaineer.

THE IMMIGRATION.—It is said that there are five hundred wagons that have not yet crossed the Powder river. These are in addition to the number with the military escort, which must be very large.—Mountaineer.

Memorial for a Branch Mint.

Mr. Hovey, chairman of the committee on Federal relations, introduced the following memorial which has passed both Houses:

Memorial of the Legislative Assembly of the State of Oregon to the Congress of the United States, asking for the establishment of an Assay Office and Branch Mint at Portland Oregon.

To the Honorable Senate and House of Representatives in Congress assembled:

The Legislative Assembly of the State of Oregon in regular session convened would respectfully represent, that within the last two years gold mines, rich and extensive in their character, have been discovered in the interior of this State and the adjoining portion of Washington Territory. The regular yield of these mines, though yet only very partially developed, is estimated at not less than half a million dollars per week, and there is every reason to believe that when the early future shall more fully develope the auriferous resources of the mining region, it will equal in extent and richness anything yet discovered upon the continent.

Engaged in these mines are supposed to be not less than fifty thousand men, and their numbers are being constantly swelled by large additions from the adjoining State of California as well as by immigration from Pike's Peak and the States East of the Rocky mountains.

The main point from which supplies for the mining region referred to, are, and will continue to be drawn, is the city of Portland in this State. Purchases and shipments of merchandise and machinery for working the mines will be made at that city, and the bullion taken from them will be brought there for sale and transmission.

Your memorialists would further represent that the Branch Mint situated at the city of San Francisco, State of California, is too distant from those engaged either in the business of mining or trading in the gold regions of Oregon and Washington referred to above, to enjoy any of its benefits, and such persons are compelled to bear the great delay, and indeed the dangers of its transmission to San Francisco, of this bullion, or dispose of the same in the city of Portland at a great loss. In view of these facts, and fully impressed with the belief that the yield of these mines will be permanent and imperatively demand as an act of justice to the [illegible] engaged in extracting the [illegible] establishment of a Br[illegible] Office at the city of P[illegible] Oregon, your memorialists would respectfully ask your honorable body to make suitable provisions therefor.

JOEL PALMER,
Speaker of the House.
WILSON BOWLBY, Pres't of the Senate.

Fort Benton—Boat Building—Immigration, &c.

Mr. Haggard, of Haggard & Denner's Bitter Root and Fort Benton Express, called on us yesterday, and from a long and interesting conversation with him, we gleaned the following items, which will be of interest to our readers. Mr. Haggard left Fort Benton with the express on the 12th, and arrived at Elk City on the 20th inst., making the distance between these two points, 420 miles, in eight days. There was quite a large number of immigrants, their train consisting of 50 wagons, at Fort Benton, on their way to Washington Territory, a majority of whom intend to settle in Deer Lodge and Bitter Root valleys. At American Forks, about 200 miles from Fort Benton, quite a village has sprung up. In all the rich valleys and bottom lands in the vicinity of the military road, immigrants have staked off their claims, built cabins, and given other evidences of their intention to make their homes in this Territory. At the mouth of Milk river, some 800 or 1,000 miles below Fort Benton, six small steamers were being constructed by the Fur Companies, La Barge, Harkness & Co. and the American Fur Company, for the navigation of the Missouri between the falls and Milk river. Communication will thus be open during the entire season between St. Louis and Benton. The Companies propose to bring freight, from St. Louis to Benton, at the rate of four cents per pound—a reduction of SIX cents from former rates.

New gold diggings were constantly being discovered. At Big Hole there were about 100 miners; at Beaver Head there was a still greater number, probably 200. The diggings at Big Hole had prospected 25 and 50 cents to the pan, and at Beaver Head as high as $2,50 had been washed in one pan, and, of course, was attracting by far the largest share of attention. The immigrants, generally, were provided with provisions for the winter; were suited with the country; spoke cheerfully of their future prospects, and had gone to work in earnest to provide for themselves comfortable homes. It is thought that the immigration next season, by way of Fort Benton, will be more than treble that of the present.—Golden Age.

OBSERVE-A-TORY MAURY, who waxed rich and famous in the service of the United States and then sold himself for a mess of Secesh pottage, thus echoes the rebel yelp against "Yankees:"

"The negro is not, as the Yankee would have the world believe, the cause or the object of the war. The tariff and hatred of the Yankee character—they are the true causes. They are a nation of shopkeepers and peddlers, and under pretext of raising revenue to maintain the Government, Southern industry was taxed to support Yankee work-shops. With this they waxed fat and grew insolent, until their insolence became unbearable."

APPROPRIATIONS OF THE LAST CONGRESS.—The recapitulation of the appropriations by the late session of Congress, is as follows:

For Legislative, Executive and Miscellaneous, $13,997,594 56. For the support of the Army for 1862, $238,518,138 77. For the support of the Navy for 1862, $30,886,204. Diplomatic and Consular, $1,215,889 89. For the Army for 1862 and 1863, $542,346,356 55. For the Navy for 1862 and 1863, $42,711,338 42. Indian Department, $2,117,962 09. Military Academy, $156,211. Fortifications, $7,035,000. Invalid and other pensions, $1,450,000. Treaty with Hanover, $41,497 06. Total, $894,904,372 33.

GEN. MANSFIELD.—Alluding to the death of this brave officer, the Stockton Independent says:

Gen. Mansfield was over 70 years of age, and had been in the service as an officer since 1817. He planned the battle of Buena Vista, and was the hero of the battle of Monterey. His death was such as a brave soldier could have wished; history and his country will take care of his fame.

Ex-Governor Hicks of Maryland, who declined a Brigadier Generalship, tendered him by the President, has joined a company as a private, at Cambridge, Dorchester county, Maryland.

It is reported that a camp of instruction for 80,000 to 100,000 troops will be established near Nashville, Tennessee.

AFTERNOON SESSION.

Met according to adjournment.

Details of News.

WASHINGTON, Sept. 26.—Governor Stanley, having transacted his official business, will return to North Carolina immediately. It is understood that the relations between himself and the Government are strictly harmonious.

It is evident that the rebels are injuriously operating on the Baltimore and Ohio railroad, between Harper's Ferry and Cumberland. They recently, it is believed, destroyed some important bridges West of Martinsburg, including that over the Black river.

NEW YORK, Sept. 26.—The special dispatch to the Tribune, from Washington, says, Eli Thayer's scheme for the colonization, by armed men, of the Southern States, which meets with much favor by the present Secretary of War, has been discussed at several Cabinet meetings. It will probably receive the formal official sanction.

The project contemplates an expedition of ten thousand colonists enlisted for six months, supplied with transportation, subsistence, arms, and a general, by the Government, whose business it shall be to possess and occupy the public lands of Florida belonging to rebels, seized under the law of the last session of Congress, for the non-payment of the direct tax.

Mr. Thayer promises, if allowed to carry out the plan in its entirety, to bring Florida into the Union, as a free State, by February next. Texas and Virginia are talked of as States subject to the same process.

Surgeon General Hammond has returned from the battle field of Antietam, and reports the fruits of our victory to be 20,000 or 30,000 small arms, mostly left by the enemy on the line of retreat.

LOUISVILLE, Sept. 25.—The armies of Buell and Bragg left Lebanon, Tennessee, and Carthage, respectively on the 21st of August; Buell following Bragg in a circuit. Our army travelled 361 miles, and Bragg's 200 miles; but Buell got into Northern Kentucky one day ahead of Bragg, notwithstanding the immense excess of our transportation over that of the enemy.

Items.

Prisoners returned from the South have brought with them a list of over three hundred citizens confined in prisons at Richmond and Salisbury, N. C., in most cases for refusing to take up arms and other acts of disloyalty against the rebel Confederacy. Their names are published.

A Sharpsburg letter to the Philadelphia Enquirer says that it has been semi-officially stated that our loss in the battle of Antietam was 9,220 killed, wounded and missing.

Governor Blair says that Michigan has raised 33 regiments of Volunteers.

This rebellion is to be put down not by a campaign against Democrats or a campaign against Republicans, but by a campaign against the rebels.

Some ten per cent. is to be added to the cost of travel on railroads in the State of Massachusetts, and probably in all other loyal States on and after the first of September.

The Lynchburg Virginian says that a large number of slaves have stampeded from that place during the past few days, and are undoubtedly on their way to the Yankee lines.

Gov. Campbell, of Tennessee, has procured the release of 387 prisoners from that State, who were confined at Camp Douglas, Chicago. They all took the oath of allegiance.

The rebel legislators are shrewd fellows.—They have just enacted that where a substitute deserts, his "employer" is to serve in his place. This is looking after the main chance, certainly, but is rough on the "employers."

The keels of two iron turret vessels were laid on Saturday, August 22d, on the north bank of the Monongahela river, one mile above Pittsburg, Pa. These vessels are to be 174 feet long, 60 feet beam, 5 feet draft of water, 1,000 tons displacement.

Lake Superior copper production has now reached to an amount more than half as great as the Cornwall mines of England. The average production of the latter is about 13,000 tons, that of Lake Superior, for 1861, is 7,450 tons. The increase from 1860 is 2,000 tons.

Just Arrived!—MR. HENDEE has arrived from San Francisco with a new assortment of Frames and Cases, and is now prepared to take CARD PICTURES and other PHOTOGRAPHS in all the latest approved styles, and at San Francisco Prices. He has made improvements in his Light and Rooms, and will warrant all his work.

Coughs.—The sudden changes of our climate are sources of PULMONARY, BRONCHIAL and ASTHMATIC AFFECTIONS. Experience having proved that simple remedies often act speedily and certainly when taken in the early stages of the disease, recourse should at once be had to "Brown's Bronchial Troches," or Lozenges, let the Cold, Cough, or Irritation of the Throat be ever so slight, as by this precaution a more serious attack may be effectually warded off. PUBLIC SPEAKERS and SINGERS will find them effectual for clearing and strengthening the voice. See advertisement.

DON'T LIKE IT.—Some of the trashy two per cent. secesh about town don't like the [illegible]'s emancipation proclamation. Of [illegible] not. They do not like any of his ne[illegible]. The poor frightened devils may rest [illegible] of one thing, however, and that is this: Abraham Lincoln will not permit [illegible] to stand in the way of his efforts to [illegible] the rebellion; and that, backed by [illegible] loyal citizen in the Union, with the [illegible]athies of the civilized world, he will [illegible] nothing undone—let no obstacle prevent [illegible] doing all that mortal man can do, [illegible] the Union and preserve the Government as our fathers bequeathed it to us. We [illegible] millions of men ready and willing to give up their last dollar and the last drop of their blood for the accomplishment of this [illegible]. Every nail that Old Abe drives [illegible] of the rebellion, makes the so[illegible] [illegible] with fear, and brings vividly [illegible] poor deluded minds the fact that the [illegible] secessionism and rebellion are numbered few. Treason cannot stare him [illegible] countenance, or hinder him from per[illegible] duty to God and man.

They are a fine looking body of men, [illegible] no doubt give a good account of them[illegible] [illegible] occasion demands it.

[illegible].—Our city is at present crowded [illegible]. The hotels are full—many [illegible] compelled to turn off applicants [illegible].

[illegible] GOLD DUST.—Another large amount [illegible] came down on the steamer Julia [illegible].

[illegible].—Our dispatch received last [illegible] no later news than that pub[illegible] of yesterday morning, re[illegible] Sierra Nevada. We will get later [illegible].

The pain consequent upon heavy pressure is [illegible] avoided.

FAMILY!

SEWING MACHINES

ARE UNEQUALLED BY ANY FOR

BEAUTY AND SIMPLICITY OF CONSTRUCTION

—AND—

Efficiency in Working.

A GOOD SEWING MACHINE

SHOULD BE WELL MADE, simple in its construction, and easily kept in order, should make a tight lock stitch, alike on both sides of the material, and should sew any and all materials that can be sewed.

It should be able to use cotton, thread, or silk directly from the spool, and to sew from coarse to fine, and from thick to thin, with rapidity, and without changing the tension. It should also be able to make the tension greater or less, on both the under and upper threads, and with uniformity; and should have a straight needle, curved ones being liable to break.

The needle should have perpendicular motion—this is absolutely necessary for heavy work.

It should be able to bind with a binder, hem with a hemmer, should stitch, fell, run and gather; and should be always ready to work.

It should be capable of using the same size thread on both sides of the work, and of using different colored thread or silk, above or below, to correspond with any two colors of cloth to be united.

It should be able to make a long or short stitch, and to fasten off the seam, and commence sewing tightly at the first stitch, and to run easily, and make but little noise.

It should have a wheel-feed; no others are in constant contact with the work.

It should not be liable to get out of order; neither should it require a screw-driver or wrench to set the needle.

It should not be liable to oil the operator's dress.

It should not form a ridge on the under side, or ravel.

PAIN PANACEA.

Is composed entirely of healing gums, and vegetable oil and herbs. It is perfectly safe for the most delicate to use. I can most sincerely say that I have never known any, however delicate, to be injured by it in the least. I will continue to ask the afflicted, who have not used it, to try it for the following diseases; If they are not satisfied with its healing properties, the money will be cheerfully returned by the agent where the medicine is for sale.

If you have pain in the stomach or bowels, try a dose of Pain Panacea internally, bathe externally over the parts affected, and you will at once restore the proper action and relieve the pain.

If you have a Bruise or Wound bathe it well with the Pain Panacea four times a day. It will relieve the pain, and take out all the poison, and heal the wound in a short time.

If you are suffering from Neuralgia or Rheumatic Pains, apply the Pain Panacea freely, and take a dose of it internally, morning, noon and night. It will not only cure the pain, but will remove the cause of the disease.

If you have the Dyspepsia, and your food distresses your stomach after eating, take a dose of Pain Panacea after each meal.

If you have a Cankered or Sore Mouth or Throat, apply the Pain Panacea to the affected parts, and gargle the mouth or throat three or four times a day.

If you have the Diarrhoea, or a relaxed state of the bowels, take a dose of Pain Panacea, and they will soon be relieved. If you have a painful swelling, bathe the parts freely, and you will soon relieve pain, and the swelling will be reduced.

If you have a severe toothache, apply the Pain Panacea on a piece of cotton and bathe gum at the same time; it will stop the pain instantly.

If you have a pain in the Breast, Side, Back or Kidneys, bathe parts affected morning and night; at the same time take a dose of the Panacea internally.

If a Mother has a caked breast, apply the Panacea as hot as it can be borne.

If you feel chilly or cold, as though you were going to have a fever, take a dose of Panacea.

If you have a wound, cut, or galls upon your horse, apply the Pain Panacea. It will take out all the inflammation and heal the sore in a short time.

Soiling Cattle.

It was the boast of the old Oregonians of dates anterior to '49 and '50 that they had at last found a country where they were not engaged five months of the year in filling their barns and hay ricks for the purpose of working the other seven months in foddering their stock — they boasted that in this particular they had found an Eureka. And indeed there were reasons for that boast. The luxuriant grass of our prairies sprung up with the approach of spring, and grew so rank and heavy in the early summer, that when the later summer appeared with its parching heat and continued drouth, this grass stood up breast deep to the well fattened herds, cured by the sun and unharmed by rain. And then when the warm rains of fall and winter fell upon the earth, this grass again started with renewed life, and the prairies were covered with their heavy carpeting of grass until spring again appeared. These were the good days of Arcadian simplicity, and uninterrupted ease, when the solid old farmers came out in the cool of evening to enjoy the breezes that came fresh and invigorating from the ocean, and to smoke their pipes while they looked complacently forth upon their herds grazing in the luxuriant herbage of the prairies, and then again to the charming scenery of mountain and forest that begirt them on every side. Those were the prosy days of Oregon's existence. She was not as yet awakened by the cry of gold that soon afterwards came up from the banks of Sacramento, and sped on the wings of the wind, summoning her people from their lethargy, and calling hitherward the tide of emigration that settled up more thickly the Willamette, restricted the cattle ranges of the earlier settlers, and soon depriving the prairies of their superabundant herbage.

That boast of the Pioneers is now no longer good. The farmer that now, depending upon the lenity of the climate, neglects to store his barns with fodder, often looks out in the spring-time upon his carrion herds, and regrets sorely his short-sighted folly. The fact is, there has been, and still is, too much reliance placed upon the probability of favorable seasons, and the ability of stock to pick up their own subsistence. There is no denying the fact that as a general rule the farmers of Oregon feed their cattle on too short commons. The old habits, begotten in the sleepy days of yore, have held on altogether too long, although rebuked time after time by dear experience. There must be a change wrought in this respect before we can fairly begin to boast of our farming. It will not do to have our stock enjoy themselves and have a sufficiency during our short springs alone, and then go the rest of the year, poverty-personified --eking out a miserable subsistence. There is neither profit nor humanity in such procedure. Your oxen will not work so well, your sheep will not yield such fleeces, nor your cows furnish such butter and cheese as though you gave them the food they imperatively demand. Farmers must begin to store up more fodder. And not only must they prepare fodder for the winter season only, but for the later summer also. Our seasons are very peculiar. The long dry summers leave our pastures comparatively barren. The grass that started with such vigor in the spring has been closely cropped, and no genial showers come, as in the Atlantic States, to revive it. Hence the necessity is forced upon the Oregon farmers to soil their cattle in the latter part of the summer in order to keep them in good condition - and this can be done without much labor or expense. Let a field of five or six acres be thoroughly manured, then turned up deep and thoroughly in the spring, then sow your corn broad cast upon it, and by the time your pastures begin to be stripped in a great measure of their verdure, this crop will be ready to furnish your cattle with their needed food. It is surprising how little of this will aid in keeping stock in full condition. Let them be fed regularly morning, noon and night, just in the measure needed, and they will preserve their flesh until the rains of fall again freshen your pastures, and be well prepared to pass throughout the winter with but their ordinary food and care. When this system is adopted, and farmers have but to try it in order to adopt and strictly follow it, we may look for better times. Even in the Eastern States, where the showers of summer keep their pastures in much better condition than ours, the best farmers are universally falling into the habit of soiling their cattle. There in the Eastern States where economy has to be practiced this plan is pursued for the reason that it is more economical. A farm where soiling is judiciously followed, will keep in good condition twice the stock that it would keep when cattle were not soiled, and only at the expense of a little extra labor which is trebly counterbalanced by the additional benefit such a system will confer upon the land. We hope that the farmers of Oregon will consider this matter, and if doubtful of its expediency give it a fair trial. We will pledge our word that your cattle will not be injured by keeping them well fed, nor your farms by keeping them well tilled—and these are the legitimate effects of soiling stock.
